D. E. "Sonshine" Troche, Founder & Ex. Director

"I was born on April 28, 1965, in Bamberg, Germany and was placed into a Children's Home that evening. My mother could not care for me. Seven years later, she met MSgt. Michael Wood, Army, Ret. 1966-1985, married and moved my brother and I to America in 1973. I was so excited to have freedom, to have a dad, and to FINALLY have my mom. Rejection, lack of acceptance, physical violence, anger and favoritism overwhelmed me. I began smoking marijuana in 1975, and became addicted to meth. I overdosed at age 13. My stepfather had to make a decision: ME or his distinguished military career. I lived with 5 different families including my real dad, for three weeks. At 17, I left home, became a drywall hanger and framer, and continued using drugs and alcohol heavily. In defending myself, I suddenly faced attempted murder charges. I faced 3-5 years in prison. God protected me. I got high for the last time on July 4, 1997. I surrendered to Jesus Christ on November 9, 1997. My Pastor convinced me to hire ex-convicts to help me hang drywall. In 2003, I worked in a female juvenile recovery program in Arizona. The lives I met broke me emotionally. I returned to Indiana in May 2004 and joined the Christian Motorcyclists Association in December of 2004. After being asked several times, I joined the Breaking Through Prison Ministry and spoke at the Westville Prison in Indiana, November of 2005. I became addicted to HOPE. I owned a Drywall Repair Business, earned an AAS Degree from Ivy Tech, while visiting all but one prison in Indiana from November 2005 - March 2009 with the CMA. I earned certification for MRT® and began volunteering in the La Porte County Jail, February of 2008. Worthy Recovery Inc. was born, and filed status on Nov 10, 2008. WRI became tax-exempt on March 5, 2009. From October of 2008-2011, I worked at the Westville Prison. WRI purchased our building, September 7, 2011. On May 15, 2016, we opened to our first resident. The Worthy Women Recovery Home exists to break the cycle of addiction and restore the HOPE of eternal life in JESUS CHRIST!"
