The Heart of Addiction...pt. 2

January 2024 Newsletter
BLESSED NEW YEAR

We at Worthy Women, want to wish you a very peaceful and Jesus-filled blessed New Year!

From Sonshine's Heart,

"The bible says in Romans 12:2, 'Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.' Can you even believe that your mind can be renewed?

Speaking of renewal, we are becoming Worthy Women Transformation, WWT - BIBLICAL DISCIPLESHIP HOME. I am training to be a Commissioned Addiction Biblical Counselor (CABC).

Staff & Volunteers are being trained; residents will have 8 (instead of 18) chances before they have to go; we have two more Jesus-following Board members; we will only use biblical counseling; we will have a weekly activity for the ladies to go do something fun (we have ZERO YARD SPACE).

We are building a new website, new email addresses, Facebook page, editing documents, updating policies for Volunteers, Staff, Residents, Board, etc.

SO, WHY CHANGE after seven years? As I said last month, I jumped in with zero experience, chased government funding, AND I am more convinced than EVER, that JESUS CHRIST is the only solution, the only way. It is the sinful heart that is the core.

I do not believe (and never have) that addiction is a disease. I very well understand that sometimes medicine is necessary; 18 years working with women, at a female juvenile facility, a men's prison, and 20 years volunteering in the jail and prisons, so I am convinced that over medicating is a serious problem.

Medication doesn't fix the heart or change it; my heart changed when it felt loved, I found it in the bible. After 26 years, I still am in awe of how different I am (well, most days). I believe Jesus was born of the Holy Spirit, lived sinless, died, was buried and rose to new life. That God ordained this great plan for us to be saved and forgiven, AND to put His Holy Spirit in us when we confess that we are sinners, repent, and believe in and unto Jesus, overwhelms me still. I want for every lady at WWT to surrender to Jesus, because she needs JESUS, nothing else will ever satisfy or save a hurting soul.

WORTHY WOMEN TRANSFORMATION
is a non-profit, Christ-centered ministry for women desiring freedom from addiction through biblical discipleship.

I just received another letter of apology (14 apologies, 85 residents) from a recent resident who, AFTER getting mad (not at me) stormed out, got caught and is now sitting in jail awaiting prison. She wrote, "I sincerely apologize for leaving like I did. I wished I would have just talked to you." Me?? I cried for about two weeks, late at night, because I have to stuff it inside around the residents.

She wants to live for God; she has a step-mother, (mom and dad were both addicted, now deceased) her brother raped her at a young age. A resident belittled her upstairs, so she began lying about dumb stuff. The belittling resident told her she was a liar, and she got mad. FOUR times in 3 hours I asked her if she would talk. BUT she wanted what she wanted, to escape the truth and run from reality. She is a real sweet heart, she talks fast, thinks she has to impress those around her, because she thinks very lowly of herself. I have so been there. I am praying the Judge will allow her to come a 3rd time.
